6423. "He educated himself, taught school, studied medicine and practiced till the war of 1861, when he entered the army as Lieut. of Co. G 51 Ohio Vol. Inf. He was engaged in many skirmishes and battles in Kentucky and Tennessee. At the battle of Stone River through some mistaken order of his superior officers his regiment was ordered to advance over the brow of the hill and hold the position at all hazards. The rebels advanced in solid mass and cut the regiment all to pieces. He was in command and refused to retreat against orders and was hit first by a large musket ball, which entered in front of the breast, fractured the left collar bone and came out at the back near the spine. A branch of the large artery which leads from the heart to the head was severed and the blood spurted at every pulsation. His knowledge of surgery taught him how to stop the blood which saved his life. His comrades against his earnest protest refused to abandon him on the field. In the midst of the hail of bullets and cannon balls they picked him up but were shot down one after another until at last Mr. John Hall, of Berlin, Ohio, a powerful man who had been drafted and joined the regiment only a few days before picked him up bodily and set him against a stump with his face towards the rebels. While he was being carried in this manner a ball fractured his left leg below the knee. The enemy charged past him and nothing but the stump against which he leaned kept him from being crushed to death. A rebel officer who was in the rear of the advancing charge was attracted by his groans and upon looking at him was struck with the fine intellectual face. Noah had a remarkable, kind and striking appearance. The officer stooped down and spoke some kind words to him calling him "Pawdner," and inquired what he could do for him. The only reply that Noah could make was, "Water! For God's sake give me some water!" His thirst was caused by the loss of blood. No one that has not experienced this feeling can realize it. The officer slipped the strap of his canteen over his head, went to the river which was some distance away, brought it back and Noah was no time in draining it dry. The officer said, "I must join my command and can do nothing more for you." Noah said, "Go! God bless you." The rebels were soon driven back past Noah and as fate would have it formed their lines of battle just beyond him which left him about midway between the two firing lines and there for nine terrible hours he lay, the bullets and cannon balls from both sides passed over, round and by him. He was hit eight times. The end of his finger was cut off, the breast bone was hit, a ball passed across his bowels and in fact he was shot all to pieces. This battle was fought Jan. 2, 1863, and yet Noah lived to raise a family of children and do much good in the practice of medicine in the Shanesville community. He lived through all this to be upset from his carriage, in what might be called a mud run, and drowned while on his way to relieve a suffering patient. When his untimely and tragic death occurred there was mourning in every household, mothers went about their work sobbing and children wept at the mention of his name. Winter snows may fall and cover his grave, but his memory will ever remain green in the hearts of those who knew him best. His heroism, patriotic devotion to his country ,and the great good he did to his people will be told from generation to generation."

Joseph, Jacob.

6526, Joseph Hostetler[2], 1, Mifflin, Pa., at death, was b. about Aug., 1742. He resided in Heidelberg Tp., Berks Co., Pa., till about 1806, when his name last appears on the tax lists of this township. In 1810, he bought from Joseph Root fifty acres in Fermanagh Tp., Mifflin Co., Pa., near McAlisterville. This land was part of the farm which William McAlister gave by will, in 1847, to his sons Robert and George Washington McAlister. One of these farms is now owned by Mrs. Sarah Lloyd, Oakland Mills, Pa., a granddaughter of William McAlister, and the other is owned by Solomon Kauffman. The inventory of Joseph Hostetler's estate was filed Aug. 24, 1812. He m. (1) Anna Blank, dau. of Hans Blank who arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 4, 1751, on ship Queen of Denmark. Hertzler Gen. (2) Barbara Kauffman, the inventory of whose estate was taken Jan. 13, 1813.

6527, John Hostetler[3], 6526, Mifflin, Pa., at death, is buried with his father on the Solomon Brubaker farm about a mile east of Mifflin. The inventory of his estate was filed July 20, 1807. His wife was Barbara Mast, who was b. Dec. 9, 1765, and d. Aug., 1849, at East Salem, Pa., the third child of Jacob Mast, who came to America with his uncle Johannes Mast, landing at Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 3, 1750, on ship Brotherhood, from Rotterdam. Rupp's 30,000, p. 244. Barbara m. (2) John Zook whose will was probated Mar. 11, 1823. Hertzler Gen. pp. 239, 339. 6527. The following is from the account book of Jacob Mast: "June 17, 1788, my dau. Barbara Mast got m. to John Hostetler, and I, Jacob Mast, gave her that day, one kettle, crocks and pans, at two pounds, and plates and cups at one pound, four shillings and ten pence; one hog at two pounds and four shillings; pewter ware at sixteen shillings and eight pence; one bed at eighteen shillings; one bed with two covers, one cow, one heifer, two sheep, one lamb and one chest. And on April 3, 1792, John Hostetler got one hundred pounds in money and also got the money for five bushels of wheat which John Hostetler acknowledged."

June 24, 1807, John and Barbara Hostetler sold 31 A. 25 P. of land in Juniata Co., Pa., to Michael Garver.

John Zook's will names his children as Christian, Mary, Magdalena, Elizabeth, Jacob and Barbara.

The iron fence about the graves of John and his father was erected about 1874, through the efforts of John Hostetler, of fam. 6628, who solicited funds from other members of the family. This took the place of a rail enclosure which was built in 1856, by John Hostetler of fam. 6605, and his son, Samuel Hostetler, of fam. 6633.

John Hostetler, at his death, owned 217 acres of land in Fermanagh Tp., Mifflin Co., Pa., which was sold Feb. 25, 1811, to Abraham Cauffman for 1,700 pounds. Solomon Brubaker bought this farm from William Kauffman, a son of Abraham Cauffman.

8308. Mrs. Burns wrote, "Have any of the family written about the Lawrence family being related to my great-great-grandfather? I remember as a child hearing my mother's brothers speak of a relative of that name, who died in Germany and left a large estate to which the Hostetlers were heirs. The family Bible which had the record of the marriage, and which was brought from Germany, was destroyed by fire when the Indians burnt the house and killed some of the Hostetler family." The name Lawrence is not German but doubtless the writer has in mind the name Lorentz.

First, My wife Barbara shall remain on and manage the place of my death, if she choose, and if she finds it good to keep all together and to bring up the children, but upon condition that she remain unmarried.

Second, If she will not keep the things that are movable goods together they may be sold by the executors, and afterwards the executors may receive the money and hand out what belongs to the children and give to my wife Barbara what belongs to her.

Third, When my least child is fourteen years old, the place shall be appraised and my eldest son Christian shall have it for his property if he will have it as it shall be valued by impartial men and for two years after he takes possession of it he shall pay nothing, and afterwards twenty pounds yearly, but if he will not have the place the second has the liberty to take it even as the first should have had it, and if he will not have it the third has the privilege to take it, and so on to the last; and if my wife Barbara remains single, and she will, she may manage the place so long till one of my children takes possession of the place; but if neither of the eldest boys will have the place the executors are allowed, if they shall think proper, to sell the place as well as they can and to divide out the money among the children in equal shares, except that the eldest shall have five pounds more than any of the others.

Fourth, If my wife remains single after my death, she shall have her seat in the house as long as she lives and shall be maintained out of the place, and the son who takes the place shall give to the mother yearly twelve bushels of grain, seven bushels of wheat and five bushels of rye, and the grass of an acre of meadow where she will take it and the second crop, and one milch cow, and shall dry and haul in her grass and second crop, and the cow shall go where his milch cows go which are on the place; and she may have her bed in the stove-room if she will; and every year a quarter of an acre of good land for flax seed to be sown in and that plowed and sowed as it ought to be; as many apples as she may want for her use; and when she shall be sick they shall procure her proper attendance; and every year a fat hog of one hundred pounds weight, and a garden for cabbage and potatoes according to her want for her support; and when she can no longer manage her work then he that dwells on the place shall do the work for her that she shall have to do.

Fifth, Now that this shall be orderly fulfilled, I choose such good friends hereto as executors, namely, Christian Yoder of Bern township and Christian Kiner of Tulpehocken township. This I acknowledge that this is my Last Will and testify it with my own hand by witnesses and seal.

Johannes Hochstedler — Christian his X mark Stutzman. (Seal.)

Appendix

Giving brief accounts of some families related to Jacob Hochstetler, the immigrant of 1736; some other Hostetter and Hostetler families; families closely connected by intermarriage; and miscellaneous information.

9000, Isaac Hochstettler (1740—Mar. 29, 1817) was a nephew of Jacob Hochstetler, the immigrant of 1736, and d. at Niederlauterbach. He attended a conference of Amish churches held June 1, 1811, at Bildauer Hof, and represented the Freuberger church. The civil register at Lauterbacherhof, bei Reichshofen, gives the names of his children whose births are here given. He m. (1) Mrs. (Rupp) Rinkenburger, who had three children by her first marriage. (A) Jacob, 9000.1; (B) Anna, m. Daniel Hoelly, and their only child Peter d. in Butler Co., Ohio, leaving a fam.; (C) Peter, 9001. M. (2) Catherine Schantz. (D) Johannes, Sept. 20, 1793—d. in old age, at Augsburg, Bavaria, leaving a son and four daughters; (E) Elizabeth, 9008; (F) Barbara, 9009; (G) Magdalena, Feb. 9, 1796—, m. in 1813, at Niederlauterbach, Johan Fritz, b. at Hutenhausen; she d. in Alsace; their dau. Barbara had 2 sons and 6 daughters; (H) George, June 30, 1798—d. single in Bavaria. M. (3) Mrs. Hoelly, who bore him no children.

9000.1, Jacob Hochstadtler, 9000, d. at Gollheim, Rhein Pfalz, Germany, or according to another account at Hesse-Darmstadt, Germany. Jacob, 9000.2; John, 9000.3; Christian, m. and d. in Germany; Mrs. Brenneman, 9000.5; Frenchen, d. in Germany, a maiden lady; Susan, m. Mr. Kissinger.

9000. The first wife of Isaac Hochstettler, maiden name Rupp, was from Canton Bern, and at one time had notice of an inheritance there, but Isaac would not claim it as at that time he thought he had money enough. He was able to have bought the land on which he lived but as the family in Switzerland had been driven from their lands he thought it safer to have his possessions in money. Later the government took his money, giving him paper in exchange which afterwards proved worthless. In his poverty he wished to secure the money from Switzerland which was offered through his first wife, but that had been given to other heirs. He gave his older children good sums of money to start in life, but the younger ones had to share his poverty.

When the Amish and Mennonites first went to Bavaria the King of Bavaria offered them very liberal and kindly treatment and gave them freedom from military service. This exemption continued for many years, till many of the Amish and Mennonites fell into drinking habits and engaged in drunken fights in the saloons and then the authorities decided it was no more against the conscience to fight for the government than to fight among themselves. This note and practically all that is given of the family of Isaac Hochstettler is furnished by Peter Hochstettler, Groveland or Pekin, Ill.

9000.1, Peter Hochstettler, of fam. 9003, recalls that Jacob lived at one time at Isenberg, Rhine Pfalz; at one time was quite wealthy, but bought too much land on money borrowed from Jews, and lost all he had.

9007. It is the impression of Peter Hochstettler of fam. 9003, that the waters from Siebenbrunnenfeld are now piped into Augsburg.

9010, Isaac Hochstettler, of fam. 9000, had at least one brother, who remained in Alsace and his descendants are supposed to have remained there. Fam. tradition gives it that this fam. was driven out of Canton Bern on account of religious persecution, but it is not known whether this flight occurred before or after the birth of Isaac Hochstetler. Peter Hochstettler, of fam. 9003, thinks the name of the brother of Isaac was Jacob. The two brothers lived on the same Hof at Reichshofen, and had their property in partnership. After the loss of the property, this brother remained on the Hof or in the neighborhood. This brother had a grandson, Jacob Hochstettler, who came to America about 1850 and worked in the breweries at Peoria, and d. single a few years later in or near Peoria. This Jacob Hochstettler's mother was Elizabeth Hunsicker, a sister of Magdalena Hunsicker, of fam. 9001. When he visited at the home of Joseph Hochstettler, of fam. 9002, it was learned that on the father's side he was a second cousin of Joseph and on the mother's side a first cousin. Fams. 9010.1—9010.5 may be akin to fams. 9000—9010.

9010.1, Peter Hostetler, Wimbegard, or Weinflegard, Alsace, France, at death, d. in 1811. His wife's name was Margaret. Anna, d. in France; Barbara, m. Jacob Eicher, and d. in Washington Co., Iowa; Abraham, Merrimac, Iowa, at death; Peter, d. in France; Christian, d. in France; John, 9010.2.

COUNT FERDINAND VON HOECHSTETTER.

9011, Letter of Count Ferdinand Von Hoechstetter, of Austria, written to Abram F. Hostetter, of Lancaster, Pa.

My dear Sir: Your letter of the 16th of October has deeply interested me, and it gives me pleasure to answer same and to give you as far as lies in my power, the information you desire.

Inasmuch as all the Hochstetters living in Europe trace their origin from a single fam. living in Augsburg in the fourteenth century, there can be no doubt that the American Hochstetters or Hostetters have the same pedigree.

We possess very copious fam. trees and genealogies of the hundreds of Hochstetters who, as clergymen, scholars, army officers, merchants, etc., are at the present day living in Bavaria and Württemberg. All that I can obtain from these persons, relative to your fam., you will find collected in the enclosed. Unfortunately our genealogies contain nothing relating to the Hochstetters who, in the sixteenth century, emigrated to Hungary and Siebenburg. It was undoubtedly from this branch that your ancestor, Jacob Hostetter is descended. After a Jacob Hochstetter who d. in 1525, the son of whom, John Jacob, d. when a child, and a Jacob Hochstetter who, in 1550, was drowned at Hall (?) in the Tyrol, I do not find any other Jacob Hochstetter in genealogies. In all probability, however, Christopher Hochstetter, son of the above mentioned Jacob, d. in Hungary in 1546, and it is from the posterity of this man (Christopher) that your fam. is descended.

At present the Hochstetters in Hungary and Siebenburg appear to have entirely d. out, since I, although I live on the eastern side of the Empire (I was b. at Esslingen in Württemberg), have never heard of the Hochstetters of Hungary and Siebenburg. That a branch of our already so widely scattered fam. also existed in America was entirely new to me, and I should be very much obliged to you if you would have the kindness to give me further information respecting the Hostetters of America, further also to let me know to what profession you yourself belong, and where the families nearest related to you are living.

I have written in German, under the impression that you understand the native speech of your ancestors, and also because English is difficult for me to write. In the hope of hearing from you again soon, I remain, most respectfully, your obedient,

Ferdinand Von Hoechstetter.

TABLEA.

The fam. of Hochstetter or Hoechstetter comes from Augsburg in Bavaria. The original progenitor is,

1, Ulrich I. Hoechstetter, b. 1390, d. 1453, a merchant and manufacturer of Augsburg. His genealogy may with some uncertainty be traced back as far as 1290. This is my ancestor in the tenth generation, from whom are descended all the Hoechstetters, some hundreds of families, who in the present day, live in Bavaria and Württemberg, as well as the Hoechstetters in Alsace, in Russia and in England.

2, Ulrich II, 1422—1497, d. in Augsburg, merchant and manufacturer in Augsburg, my ancestor in the ninth generation, father of five sons and seven daughters. The sons were, 1, Ulrich III, b. 1450; 2, George I, 1453—1514; 3, Jacob, b. in 1460, d. in 1525, at the age of 65 years, probably at Ulm in Württemberg; his wife was Barbara Rotin of Ulm; the fruit of this marriage was six sons and three daughters; 4, Ulrich IV, 1462—1427; 5, Ambrosius I, 1463—1530. The second son of Ulrich II, George I, is my ancestor in the eighth generation, and the third son, Jacob, is, according to my view, your ancestor.

The six sons of this Jacob, who in 1518, as brother of Ambrosius I, who was made a nobleman by the Kaiser Maximilian I, was likewise a noble,—(I suppose he means that Ambrosius was made a noble by the Kaiser and that Jacob was already a noble.—Translator.) the six sons of this Jacob, then, were, 1, Jacob, b. 1506, d. as a child; 2, Sebastian, 1511—1569; 3, Christopher, 1512, d. in Hungary in 1546; 4, Frederick, 1517, d. in 1545 at Siebenburg; 5, Walter, b. 1518, d. (?); 6, Johann Cleristostomas, b. 1523,—(The translator has again put in, "Here follows a line which I can not decipher. Some of the words are abbreviations.")

Our genealogies give me further information respecting the posterity of Sebastian, Walter and Cleristostomas. Sebastian had but one son, Jacob, b. in 1544, the one who, in 1550, was drowned at Hall, in the Tyrol. All of Walter's sons d. young, as also the sons of Johann Cleristostomas, so that these three families were already extinct in the sixteenth century. Respecting the posterity of Christopher and Frederick our genealogies contain no further information, and it is only a guess, if the Christopher who d. in Hungary in 1546, but concerning whom nothing further is known, I hold to be the fourth of your ancestors. Vienna, Nov., 1883.

Ferdinand Von Hoechstetter.

Appleton's Annual Encyclopedia for 1884, gives this account of Ferdinand Von Hochstetter, the writer of the foregoing letter, written but a few months before his death.

"Hochstetter, Ferdinand Von, a German geologist, b. in Esslingen in 1829, d. July 18, 1884, in Ober Doebling, near Vienna, son of a clergyman, and educated to the same profession, but abandoned it for the natural sciences. Became Professor of Mineralogy and Geology in Vienna Polytechnical School in 1860. In 1881, he took charge of the Royal Museum of Natural History. His explorations in eastern Europe and his discoveries of pre-historic remains have been published in a series of works, some of which have been translated into English."

A son of the above is Count Robert Von Hochstetter, 4 Hugasse, 18 A., Vienna, Austria.

This Hochstetter fam. at Augsburg was quite prominent in the commercial and industrial life of Augsburg and vicinity. They took an active part in great combinations of wealth and control of trade which were characteristic of the period. Janssen in his History of Germany during the Middle Ages devotes considerable space to the transactions of this fam. In the Cosmopolitan Magazine for Jan., 1903, there is an account of the transactions of an Ambrosius Hochstetter in the control of quicksilver mines, and shows him in close association with the Archduke Ferdinand of Austria. About the time of the Reformation, this fam. appears among the wealthy classes and not free from the vices of the time and of their class.

SOME HOSTETTER FAMILIES.

9012, Jacob Hostetter, Lancaster, Pa., at death, in 1761, and his wife Anna were Swiss Mennonite exiles, who arrived in Pa. in 1712, and settled north of the Conestoga, near the limits of Lancaster. A chart of his descendants has been published, giving the names of part of the fam. for the first four generations. He is reported to have been a Mennonite minister. Rupp's 30,000 Immigrants, p. 437, names Jacob Hochtetter as settling in Lancaster Co., Pa., in 1712. He is the first of the name to settle in America. Many of his descendants have remained in Lancaster Co. According to fam. tradition, he came from near Lake Constance, Canton Zurich, Switzerland. Anna, 9013; Jacob, 9014; Barbara, 9023; Elizabeth, 9024; Abraham, 9025; Margaret, 9038; John, 9039; Catherine, d. in Manor Tp., a maiden lady.

9013, Anna Hostetter, 9012, d. in 1787, the wife of John Brubaker who d. in 1785. No children.

9014, Jacob Hostetter, 9012, d. in Manor Tp., Lancaster Co., Pa., in 1796. His wife is named Anna. Jacob, 9015; Abraham, 9016; Benjamin, 9017; Anna, 9018; Elizabeth, 9019; Maria, 9020; Esther, 9021; Barbara, 9022.

9012. The letter of Count Ferdinand Hochstetter, just preceding, was written to a descendant of Jacob Hostetter of fam. 9012. If his opinion is correct that the Hostetters of Europe and America have descended from the family at Ulm, then the family moved into Switzerland at Zurich, and thence to Glarus and Bern Cantons. The move from Zurich may have been hastened by the religious persecution which was directed against the Anabaptists at Zurich. Some have thought that the name Hochstetler is another form of the name Hochstetter. If this view be correct that family may also have come from Ulm. But the notes under No. 9189 show that the family name occurs in Switzerland very early.

9020, Maria Hostetter, 9014, m. Isaac Heinly. Abraham, m. Barbara Stauffer; John, m. Barbara Lighty.

9027, Abraham Hostetter, 9026, d. at Lancaster, Pa., and m. Magdalena Lichty. Among his children were John Lichty Hostetter who d. at Mt. Carroll, Ill., in 1887, m. Mary Anne Irvine. Dr. John Irvine Hostetter, Colo, Iowa, is a son of this couple. The last surviving dau. of Abraham Hostetter is Mrs. Anna Addams, Cedarville, Ill., whose dau. Miss Jane Addams, is head of Hull House, Chicago, Ill.

9028, Dr. and Col. Jacob Hostetter, 9026, was b. in 1791, and d. in 1859. He m. in 1818, Mary Landes who was b. in 1798, and d. in 1824. He manufactured the well known Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. He had a son David (1819—1888), whose granddaughter, Miss Amy DuPuy, 647 Morewood Ave., Pittsburg, Pa., has given much help on this fam.

9090, Ulrich Hostetter, arrived on the same ship as his brother Christian, of fam. 9061, and settled in Germany Tp., York Co., Pa. An extensive chart of his descendants has been printed and may be had from Rev. Henry B. Hostetter, South Bend, Ind., and Rev. Victor G. Hostetter, Bays, Ohio. His children are given as, John; Joseph; Ulrich, 1747—, an ensign in York Co. Continental line, Pa. Arch. 5 Ser. vol. 4, p. 470; engaged in battles, White Plains, Trenton and Staten Island; Aug. 7, 1832, at 83 yrs., living in Rockbridge Co., Va., he applied for a pension which was granted from Aug. 7, 1832 to Feb. 6, 1840. See fam. 8728, note. Isaac; Henry; Jacob; David. Three other sons are claimed, names unknown. The chart gives the families of Henry, Jacob and David.

9091, Nicholas Hostetler, McClellandtown, Pa., at death, was b. in 1725, d. Dec. 19, 1795, and is buried on his farm not far from Uniontown. His will bears date June 16, 1795, and was probated Feb. 16, 1796, and makes provision for his wife Anna. He arrived in Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 15, 1749, on the same ship with his brothers Christian and Ullerich, of fams. 9061 and 9090. His name appears on the tax list of Manellen Tp., Westmoreland Co., Pa., in 1783, and in German Tp., Fayette Co., Pa., in 1785. From his will his children appear to be, Nicholas, 1767—Feb. 11, 1837; Cattey, wife of Mr. Riffle, d. without issue; Margaret, 9092; Ann, 9094; Jacob, d. about 1839, without issue.

9092, Margaret Hostetler, 9091, m. Mr. Miller. From the distribution of the estate of her brother it appears that her children were, Lewis; Catherine, m. Isaac Clark; Sarah, m. Benjamin Miller; Mary, m. Alexander Sickles; Isaac; Eliza, m. Daniel Griffis; Ann, 9093.

9090. The correspondence on this history has brought the following additional names and addresses of some who are descendants of Ulrich Hostetter: Albert Kersey Hostetter, Grinnell, Iowa; Miss Lydia Hostetter, Ladoga, Ind.; Frederick H. Hostetter, Perry, Okla.; Lewis C. Hostetter, Canton, Ohio; Austin F. Hostetter, Zelma, Okla.; A. D. Hostetter, Wellsville, Kansas; Dr. Allen H. Hostetter, Douglas, Nebr.; William H. Hostetter, Lebanon, Ind.; William Robert Hostetter, Denver, Colo.; Hon. D. B. Hostetter, Roachdale, Ind.; Fred Hostetter, Evansville, Ind.

Ulrich Hostetter appears on the tax lists of Germany Tp., York Co., Pa., for the years 1779-83, and in the year 1783 he appears on the list with four inhabitants in his family. It is likely that the David Hostetter who appeared on this township list in 1782, as a single man, was a son of Ulrich. It is likely that Ulrich's son Henry is the Henry Hostetter who appears on the lists of Heidelberg Tp., York Co., for the years 1779-1783, and in 1783, is credited with seven in his family. There appears also on the Heidelberg lists for 1779-81, a France Hostetter who may have been a son of Ulrich. David, Jacob and Catherine Hostetter appear in the district including Germany and Heidelberg Tps., York Co., Pa., in the federal census of 1790. The same census locates John and Jacob Hoastater in Dauphin Co., both most likely sons of Ulrich.

9091. Nicholas Hostetler and some of his family are buried on his farm, about a mile from McClellandtown, in Fayette Co. Among these graves is that of Magdalena Hostetler, d. Dec. 21, 1801, aged 71 years. This could not have been his dau. Margaret.

9093, Ann Miller, 9092, m. Mr. Miley. John; Israel; Sally Ann; Squire L. It appears from a statement in the Orphans court, at Uniontown, Pa., in June, 1840, that all these were then of age except Squire L.

9094, Ann Hostetler, 9091, who d. Sept. 25, 1807, m. Peter Cooprider, and from the settlement of the estate of her brother Jacob it appears her children were, John, 9095; Peter; Jacob; Margaret, m. Benjamin White, of fam. 2508; Polly, m. Mr. Elliott. Many descendants of Ann Hostetler and Peter Cooprider reside near Clay City, Ind.

9095, John Cooprider, 9094, m. Elizabeth Fleshman, at Corydon, Ind., and d. near Clay City, Ind. Elias, of fam. 856; Henry; John, of fam. 2508; Washington; Elisha; William; Joseph; Polly; Susan; Anna; Eliza; Isabell; Three d. in infancy.

OTHER MILLER FAMILIES.

9175, John Miller, known as "Broad Run" John, lived at Winfield, Tuscarawas Co., Ohio, on the outskirts of the Amish settlement. His wife was Catherine Yoder. He was one of three brothers from Cambria Co., Pa. Whether there were more brothers and sisters is not known. The report is that the father or grandfather of those men was an Irish boy who at the death of his mother was placed in the care of an Amish family who were permitted to keep him after the second marriage of his father. This kindness to a motherless boy has brought into the Amish church many substantial families, as may be seen by those who appear in this work. One of these three brothers was Isaac Miller, who married Mrs. Lena (Honerich) Christner, and had no children. The other brother was Christian Miller, an Amish minister, a blacksmith who lived near Charm, Ohio, and known as Schmidt Miller, of fam. 1939, note. The children of John Miller are, (A) Daniel, 9176; (B) John, m. Miss Chupp, and moved to Elkhart Co., Ind., about 1839; (C) Simon, m. Oct. 31, 1815, Elizabeth Gnaegi, of Gnagey Gen. 9179. The account of the Troyer family given in fams. 9179-84 was furnished by Mr. Moses K. Troyer, Walnutcreek, Ohio, who has given considerable time to the study of the Troyer family. The Mast Gen., p. 690, gives an account of a Michael Troyer and brother Andreas coming to America in the same vessel. Michael Troyer m. Magdalena Mast and their children are given as Michael, Andreas, Abraham, Joseph and David. This last named son may be the David Troyer of fam. 9179. From the Pa. Archives it is learned that Joseph, John, Michael, Michael, Jr., and Christian Troyer were early residents and land owners in Somerset Co., Pa. There were also Peter and John Troyer in Philadelphia Co., Pa., and Thomas Troyer in Chester Co., Pa.

9185. Montgomery's History of Berks Co. makes no mention of widow Barbara Yoder, but gives the names of the children of Yost and John Yoder, very early settlers in Oley Tp. Yost is named as oldest of the two brothers and seven of his nine children are named as Johannes or Yost, m. Catherine Lyster; Jacob, m. Maria Keim; Samuel; Mary, m. Daniel Bertilot; Catherine, m. John Reppert; Elizabeth, m. Matthias Rhode and Esther, m. Mr. Cunius.

John Yoder, the brother of Yost Yoder had land surveyed in Oley Tp., as early as 1714; his children are named as John, m. Sarah Shingle (Schenkel or Shankle); Samuel; Peter; and Daniel, 1718—Aug. 21, 1749, buried at Pleasantville, Pa.

Names of those who paid quit rents in Philadelphia Co., Pa., prior to 1732, from Oley Tp., Johannes Joder, Jr., 300 acres; Johannes Joder, 100 acres and Yost Joder, 150 acres. These same names are in the lists of those naturalized before 1730. Rupp's 30,000 Immigrants, pp. 434 and 475.

Rupp's 30,000 Immigrants gives the following persons and dates of arrival: Sept. 21, 1742, Jacob Yoder (Strong), Christian Yotter and Christian Yotter, Jr.; Dec. 22, 1744, Yost Yotter; Oct. 9, 1747, Johannes Yetter; Sept. 2, 1749, Hanes Peter Jotter, Johannes Jotter; Oct. 4, 1751, Jacob Joder; Sept. 26, 1753, Johannes Yoedder; Oct. 27, 1764, Daniel Yoder. Mr. Charles T. Yoder, Washington, D. C., for some years has been collecting data for a history of the Yoder family in America. He has kindly loaned some of his material for this work.

9186. The first six of the above list resided in 1787 in Bedford, now Somerset Co., Pa., and the others resided Feb. 1, 1787, near Hamburg, Berks Co., Pa.

9187. Christian, the oldest son of "Strong" Jacob Yoder, was known as "Dick Christel." Descendants of his appear in Beachy Gen. Fams. 21, 24, 51 and 191; also nos. 6916 and 6830 of this work. Jacob, the last named on this list of the children ship were Christian Yoder and Christian Yoder, Jr., of fam. 1389, note. "Strong" Jacob Yoder resided at his death on the farm now owned and occupied by Samuel Stoltzfus, in the Conestoga valley, Lancaster Co., Pa. Mr. Joas J. Yoder, Belleville, Pa., sends two family records, the first of which appears to be the family of Strong Jacob Yoder, as follows: Barbara Yoder, b. 1725—; Mathlena Yoder, b. 1726—; Christian Yoder, b. 1728—; Elizabeth Yoder, b. 1729—; Johannes Yoder, b. 1732—; Yost Yoder, b. 1734—, 9188; Fronica Yoder, b. 1738—; Jacob Yoder, b. 1740—.

Hoofstater in Cumberland Co., Pa., with a family of himself, three free white males under sixteen years, and five free white females, including the head of the family.

In Chester Co., Pa., as early as 1781, we find the name of Henry Hufstiller on the tax lists and also in 1785, the name of Henry Hoofstedler, in Upper Darby Tp., in the same county. From the same township, the name Henry Hoofstetter appears on the roll of Capt. Caleb Davis' company for Revolutionary service. George Hoofstedler of the same county is enrolled in the lists of those between 18 and 53 years, and liable for service in the Revolution. George Hostadler was Captain of militia in Bedford Co., Pa., 1776-84. The census of 1790 locates a Henry Hufstickler in Upper Darby Tp., Delaware Co., Pa.

The census of 1790 finds in Georges Tp., Fayette Co., Pa., Samuel Howsteeter, with a family of two white males under sixteen years and three females; and in the adjoining township of Menallen, Samuel Howstatler, with one free white male under sixteen and four free white females.

Peter Hostetter appears in 1779, on the tax list of Rapho Tp., Lancaster Co., Pa. There is no one of this name among the descendants of Jacob Hostetter, the immigrant of 1712.

Jane Hoofstetler, widow of John Hoofstetler, was a pensioner of the war of 1812-14. Her husband had been a member of Capt. Hall's Co. She resided in Pa. See Pa. Arch. ser. 6, vol. 9, p. 347.

Joseph Hostedder was classed among the inmates of Earle Tp., Lancaster Co., Pa., in 1782, and taxed two pounds and five shillings. He was probably a resident tax payer but not a land owner.

Lawrence Hofstadler appears in 1783, on the tax list of Kingsessing Tp., Philadelphia Co., Pa.

John Hostetter appears in 1782, on the tax list of Lebanon Tp., Lancaster Co., Pa.

John Hoffstedler, a cooper of Philadelphia, Pa., took the oath of allegiance to the United States, Aug. 2, 1779. See Names of persons who took the oath of Allegiance, 1778-1787, John Campbell, Philadelphia, 1865.

John Hostader appears on the first list of taxables in Maxatawny Tp., Berks Co., Pa., in 1753.

EXTRACTS FROM SWISS LEXICON.

The following items bearing on the family name are taken from volume X of the ALLGEMEINES HELVETISCHES EYDGENOSSISCHES, Oder SCHWEIZERISCHES LEXICON by HANS JACOB LEU; published by HANS ULRICH DENZLER, ZURICH, 1756. This rare work was consulted in the Pa. State library, at Harrisburg, Pa., and these extracts were furnished by the custodian, Luther R. Kelker.

"Hochstetten, a landed estate in the parish Ueberstorf, in the former territory of the city of Freyburg, see Hoechstetten.

"Hoechstetten[1], a large village, church and parish between Worb and Signau, in the domain or dominion Wyl, and in the court circuit Sonolfingen,

1. This village is now called Gross Hoechstetten. The parish included Oberthal where Anna Elizabeth Joss of fam. 2207 was b. and raised, and where her father Nicholas Joss was a prominent teacher. He fought against the French invasion and was a canton legislator. Oberthal is still attached to Gross Hoechstetten, though in 1850 it had 1,050 inhabitants while Gross Hoechstetten had but 704.

of Canton Bern. The control of the church at that place passed in the year 1362 from Count Ego of Kyburg to Richard van Bueren, later from Ulrich Richlin, by mortgage to the city of Bern which disposed of it to the Van Bannmoos who in 1494 conveyed it to the monastery of Bern.

"Hoechstetten, a large parish, bounded by the parishes Biglen, Wyl, Signau, Muensingen and Roetenbach, and including the villages Oberhofen, Rinkhofen, Niderdorf, Lenzigen, etc. The authorities at Bern provided a pastor and in 1720 they added an assistant, both belonging to the Prebendary of Bern. There is at this place a seat of local government and a prison.

"Hoechstetten, a village sometimes attached to Coppingen parish and sometimes to Seeberg, in the lower courts of Thorberg and in the higher courts of Waugen.

"Hoechstetten, a village in the commune Brienz, domain Interlaken, at the Bruenig Mountain.

"Hoechstetten, a small village in the Parish Kersez, in the court circ it Sefflingen; also a village named Klein Hoechstetten in the Parish Muensingen, court circuit Sonolfingen. All these villages, church and parishes are in the territory of the city of Bern.

"Hofstatt, a landed estate in the Parish Hasli and the Luzern Prefecture Entlibuch, also houses and landed property in the parishes and congregations Hundweil and Gais, in the canton Appenzell in the vicinity of Rooden.

"Hofstett, a landed estate in the Parish Meggen, in the Luzern Prefecture of Habsburg.

"Hofstetten, a name applied to small villages in the territory of the city of Zurich, in the so-called Staechlinen confederacy; in the Parish Ellgund, prefecture Kyberg; in the Parish and Upper Prefecture Meilen. The name is applied also to several houses and landed estates of less importance in the Parish Oberglatt and Upper Prefecture New Amt; in the parish Turbenthal and Lower Courts broad Landenberg in the Prefecture Kyberg; in the Parish Augst and Prefecture Knonau and in the Parish Kilchberg and Prefecture Horgen.

"Hofstetten, a village in the territory of the city of Bern, in the Parish Zimmerwald; also a village in the Parish and jurisdiction Belp in the court of Seftingen.

"Hofstetten, a landed estate in the territory of the city of Lucern in the Parish and Prefecture Willisau; and in the Parish Sursee and Prefecture Muenster where a castle formerly stood.

"Hofstetten, in the territory of the city of Solothurn, a village, church, and besides Meserlen, a Parish in the Prefecture Dornek, where the Parish belongs to the Prebendery Leimenthal and is superintended by a monk of the monastery Marienstein. Not far from the monastery are the remains of the palace Sternenberg.

"Hofstetten, a residence and brick huts in the territory of the city of Schaffhausen and Parish and Prefecture Neuhausen which was conveyed in 1290 by the Meyers at Woerdt to Egbrecht of Randenburg and was conveyed in 1422 by Goezen of Randenburg to the Van Fulach family who in turn conveyed to the monastery of All Saints at Schaffhausen which is still in possession.

"Hofstetten, in the territory of the St. Gallen monastery; there is a landed estate of this name in the parish Straubenzell in the Lands-Hofmeisteramt and another in the parish Mogelsperg and Earldom Toggenburg, and in the Earldom Baden there is another landed estate of the same name in the parish and circuit Birmenstorf.

"Von Hofstetten, an extinct noble family of Switzerland. It is not known whether all of the name that are found in old records, are of the same family. Nor is it known which of the places herein mentioned is the original home of the family, though several or all of the places may have given name to a family.

"Kueger Von Hofstetten appears in 1130 in the charter of the convent Fahr below Zurich and also in 1173 in a document of the monastery at the foot of Zurich Mountain.

"Gaudenz Von Hofstetten was a councilman of the city of Zurich, for the years 1351-1357, 1359, and from 1361 to 1370. Peterman Von Hofstetten and Heinrich Von Hofstetten are said to have lived about 1360 in Hofstetten in the prefecture Dornek. Ulrich Von Hofstetten was prefect of Klingnau in 1380 and prefect of Kayserstul in 1387.

"The name occurs also in the territory Sargans, where some of the name obtained at Wallenstadt a house from the family of Van Montfort, and owned several serfs.

"Gaudenz Von Hofstetten obtained citizenship in Zurich in 1431 and through his wife Elizabeth, only daughter of Henry, the last baron of Kempton, obtained possession of the same property. During the Zurich war he was so true and faithful to Zurich, that his neighbors in the cantons Schweiz and Glarus, about 1440, did not treat him like other landowners who were citizens of Zurich and threatened to burn his castle. Finally however his castle was spared but he was forced to give up his citizenship of Zurich and accept a position of minor importance with Schweiz and Glarus. It is said that his daughter Kuengold who was married to Casper Blaarer of Wartensee, was the last of the family.

"There are several of the name buried at the Cloister Ruehti; and several also are buried in the church at Wallenstatt who were contributors to the church.

"Some of this family name were household overseers in the monastery Einsidlin. The name was written also Meyer von Hofstetten as appears by one who was mayor of Kyburg in 1360. Stumpf, Chron. Helv. lib. VI, c. 2, 4. Tschudi, Chron. Helv. ad Anno 1440. Wurstis Chron. of Basel, p. 19, 20. Hafner Soloth. Schau-Pl. P. II, p. 400.

"Hofstetter, an extinct family of the city of Bern. Of this family there was Hans Hofstetter who was governor at Interlaken in 1578 and in 1606 became steward of the monastery of Zofingen.

"Hofstetter, a family in the city of Lucern. Antoni Hofstetter became governor of Weggis in 1429 and governor of Habsburg in 1433. Hans Hofstetter was councilman of Rotenburg in 1422 and governor of Rotenburg in 1433 and 1439. He was a captain in the army of Lucern in the battle at St. Jacob, near Basel where he was killed.

"Hofstetter, a family of the Canton Appenzell in the vicinity of Rooden, in the commune of Buehler where Johannes Hofstetter was several times captain of the commune, and in 1730 captain of a larger territory and in 1735 treasurer. In 1747 one of the same name was ensign.

"Hofstetli, also called Scheurli (small barn), a house and landed property in the parish Russiken, in the Earldom Kyburg and territory of the city of Zurich."

STUTZMAN FAMILY.

9190, The brothers and sisters of Anna Stutzman, of fam. 9147, are, Jacob, of Ohio, 9191; John, 9192; Christian, of the eastern part of Pa.; Mrs. Peter Miller, of fam. 9163; Fanny, first wife of Nicholas Keim, of fam. 2245; Magdelena, 9196.

9190. This list of the brothers and sisters of Anna Stutzman, wife of Jacob Miller, is taken from the papers of Moses B. Miller. His list gives the last name as Mrs. John Yoder, of Mifflin Co., Pa.

This family came to Somerset Co., Pa., about the same time as the families of Christian and John Hochstetler and have continued side by side with the Hochstetler families in the settlements farther west. Practically all the Stutzmans named in this work are descendants of this Somerset Co. family. If this family were the children of Barbara Hochstetler and Christian Stutzman of fam. 8921, it might explain why Adam Miller of fam. 9149 called himself Hostetler, the family name of his great-grandmother and might explain also the friendship of Christian Hochstetler when he included in his own survey the land of Jacob Stutzman as noted on pages 57-8 of this work. The close association of this Stutzman family with the Hochstetler family all these years together with the two incidents just noted offer a strong probability that this Stutzman family of Somerset Co. are the children of Barbara and Christian Stutzman, especially as some of the descendants think the name of the father of this family was Christian. Definite proof of this relationship has not been found at the hour when these forms are up.

It may be well to add what has been learned about the Stutzman family from the Pa. Archives and other sources. Johann Jacob Stutzman came to Philadelphia, Oct. 2, 1727, in the ship Adventurer, John Davies, Master, from Rotterdam, last from Plymouth. Col. Rec. III, 288, Rupp's 30,000 Immigrants, p. 53. He is probably the Jacob Stutzman who was in Berne Tp., Berks Co., Pa., before 1740, but does not appear on the assessment lists from 1753 to 1784. According to the Hertzler Gen. Fam. 426, note, he had a son Christian, likely the Christian Stutzman who was living in Berne Tp., Berks Co., as early as 1735. In 1756 a Christian Stutzman sold land in this tp. without the signature of a wife, and this land adjoined land of Jacob Stutzman. This is likely the Christian Stutzman, Sr., who with his son, Christian Stutzman, Jr., appears on the tax lists of Pine Grove Tp., Berks Co., in 1779 and 1784. Christian Stutzman received a warrant for Berks Co. land April 30, 1765, and a Christian Stutzman also received a warrant for land in the same county, Aug. 19, 1785.

Peter Stoutsman, aged 46 yrs., arrived at Philadelphia, on the ship Lydia, and qualified Sept. 29, 1741.

Jacob Stutzman arrived on the ship Nancy Sept. 27, 1752. This may be the Jacob Stutzman who Dec. 23, 1754, received a warrant for land in Berks Co., adjoining Benedict Thomas and Baltzer Shaffer, "over the Blue Mountains, adjoining Thomas Sharleys." He would not take oath but was permitted to make affirmation. This may be the Jacob Stutzman who made affirmation, April 10, 1757, in Cumberland Co., Pa. The will of Jacob Stutzman, of Peters Tp., Cumberland Co., Pa., was probated Jan. 2, 1776, showing a wife Hanna, sons David, Jacob, Daniel and Abraham, and daus. Platina Stoner and Fannie Leer. His sons Abraham and Daniel appear on the tax lists of Peters Tp., in 1779, and a John Stutzman appears in 1785 on the lists of Pennsboro Tp., Cumberland Co. This is likely the Jacob Stutzman who took land in Cumberland Co., in 1754. In the previous paragraph is noted the land of Jacob Stutzman adjoining land of Christian Stutzman. This may be the land that was taken by Jacob Stutzman Aug. 8, 1754.

Martin Stutzman was naturalized in Berks Co., April 10, 1753, by making affirmation. Peter Stutzman received a warrant for Schuylkill Co. land in 1825, and William A. Stutzman received in 1858 a warrant for land in the same county.

John Yoder, of fam. 1389, note; Sarah, m. in 1798, Yost Yoder, son of John Yoder and Barbara Reichenbach of fam. 7209; Catherine, d. single in old age; Susannah, m. Michael Schrock; Elizabeth, m. Yost Yoder.

WILL OF JOHN HOCHSTETLER.

9197, Will of John Hogstadler, 1805, of fam. 2. John Hogstadler, of Elk Lick Township, Somerset county, in the state of Pennsylvania, considering my mortality do make this 15th day of March in the year of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, one thousand eight hundred and five, my last will and testament. My last will and testament is as follows: First my executors are to bury me in a Christianlike manner. Secondly, my executors shall procure maintenance for my wife, Ann, that she can live well and in peace.

If my son John will let her have for a reasonable rent this little house of this work. His time and excellent library have always been ready for the frequent calls made on them. Some valuable information has also been furnished by Miss Cora C. Curry, 1020 Monroe St., Washington, D. C. She is engaged in extensive researches on the Stutzman family and may later have a volume printed. Mrs. Emma Luft, Elkhart, Ind., is secretary of the Stutzman and Stutesman reunions held at Goshen and South Bend, Ind., and has furnished much information on this family.

9196. Samuel S. Yoder is a grandson of Sarah and Yost Yoder and wrote that he had no records of the first three sons of Magdalena Stutzman of John Yoder.

and some garden and about 12 perches for potatoes, and she is willing to remain there, then all is well as long as they can live together in Peace and Love. But if this cannot be as before mentioned then my son Henry is to give her maintenance that she may be able to live in peace and love. And if my wife Ann wants to milk a cow from the first day of May for 5 or 6 months, she has nothing in the cow, as before mentioned, a good easy milch cow yearly as long as she lives or wants her, and the executors shall pay it out of the estate whatever is equitable and just and give it to her wherever she may be. It is to be paid out of the estate as before mentioned or if she does not want to milk, herself, she is to have thirty pounds of butter yearly as she wants it during the summer, good fresh butter in the fall, the remainder till she has thirty pounds; and four hundred good wheat flower, half a hundred at a time, and ten pounds good fresh pork and five and twenty pounds of well salted and smoked meat, one kind gammon (ham) must be amongst it and twelve pounds good sugar and half a bushel of good salt and six bushels of good apples, two bushels of which are to be sweet apples, and twelve dozen good eggs, and fifteen pounds good swingled flax. All these before mentioned things or articles shall be given to her yearly as long as she lives and paid out of my estate,—and further she is to have ten pounds of good beef, yearly. Further she is to have my baking tub, my old bound iron kettle, dough trough, three bread baskets, three good bags of each piece of new cloth, the one half my bedsteads, chaff-bag cover with two cases, pillows with two cases, my small cupboard in the bedroom, half a dozen good tablespoons, a small copper kettle, 2 sheets, 2 table cloths, 3 towels (but I forgot to mention if she wants to milk, herself, she shall have fourteen good milk crocks and a cream crock, but if she does not want to milk, then this article is void), and my cast skillet, a spinning wheel and reel, and 2 good buckets, one tin and one wooden, 2 bottles, 3 tin cups, one arm chair, one chair, a vinegar keg, a butter tub, 3 ladles, skimming ladle, soup ladle and cook ladle. My large chest with double drawers, my small table. Further shall she take what she did bring with her, except her old bed and her chest and the money which she has outstanding for spinning in the forty shillings or thereabouts. So we have agreed together. But the money I received from the estate of the deceased Uly Shrag, twenty-one pounds, my executors shall take yearly out of said money, three pounds instead of out of my estate and pay with it all what is above mentioned as out of my own money and give her yearly out of said money three dollars for to buy some small articles that she may want.

This makes yearly four pounds, 2 shillings and six pence. And if she lives so long till the before mentioned twenty-one pounds are expended, then three dollars are to be given to her yearly out of my estate.

And if she should fall into weakness or sickness then my executors shall procure attendance for her as it is right and equitable as if it was your own mother, for she is my flesh and bone. She is very faithful to me. But now I say as our plans are very uncertain, if accidents should happen that it would not suit with John or Henry as before mentioned for to maintain her, then my executors and some trusty brethren are to consult with my wife where she is to go to be maintained well and is to be given her out of my estate, six pounds and what remains out of the before mentioned twenty-one pounds is to be given to her, also all what is necessary for her maintenance. And 3, Thirdly it is my will that my wife Ann shall not draw the third part of my estate nor her heirs or executors,—No person shall attempt to deprive the children of my body of anything. 4. After my decease my executors, Freny, Catherine, Aneli, Joseph, David, Daniel and Jonathan, the said nine children shall meet together, and my mare, and cow, and house clock, stove, carpenter and joiner tools, books, beds and cupboard in the room, and all other small articles shall be divided amongst the said nine children in peace and love or sold to the highest bidder and the greatest articles which will run high into money, my executors shall give to him that is lowest in inheritance. You will find it in my book, also notes. Me and my wife Catherine have well considered these things that my son John shall draw nothing more for he has received already more value than any of the other children.

I wrote all that I shall leave behind but the money for the mother is to be taken out of the first. Now I write for my son John. Further when he moved away from me I gave him to the amount of fifty pounds in good gears and a horse, a cow, a rifle and land and fetched him in the glades, and before that I gave him a horse, feed and provisions to ride up and make his improvement. These two articles are behind yet and not counted and now I count these two articles, twelve pounds and fifty pounds. He has paid on the place $1,100.50. Fifthly, now I will give my reasons how and why my son John shall not come in for his share. At the time when all my children came together for to make a bargain, I had his place on payment. The next day he came to me and begged of me till I gave him another bargain, and he shortened me very much in the orchard, as the first bargain when the fruit did not turn out well I was to have the fourth or sixth bushel, and if it turned out well I was to have fifteen bushels and the sixth gallon of cyder and I have deprived my children because I gave him his installments back again and my son-in-law, Abraham Miller, offered to give one hundred pounds more in hand. These hundred pounds are now so far behind that they would not pay the interest if a person would borrow one hundred pounds for such a length of time. Those articles make my conscience clear but why have I done it. Me and my wife K. have repented it all our lives, not that I blame him now, I have done it myself, John does not pay much more than the rent from the place.

In this fourth article in the last line I hav written closely, which reads as follows "and fifty pounds he has in the place," and so John has. For the other children have to borrow money and pay interest. Therefore it is my will that my second son John shall not have any share or right in my estate. Neither him, his heirs or executors. Now I say that in the second article I have enclosed one line, this is void. 6. Sixthly, Jacob, Freny, Katherine, Anely are so far behind in their inheritance, it is my will and I bequeath to them the tract of land in the Allegheny, to wit, 322 acres with a clear deed and draft.

Jacob, my eldest son, shall sell it, take pay for his trouble and then divide it with his three sisters, Freny, Catherine and Aneli in equal shares in peace and love. Seventhly, My executors are to examine what each of them before named nine children, Jacob, Freny, Catherine, Aneli ought to have. From Money that first comes in they shall give till each has one hundred pounds and then it begins with Jacob. He draws twelve and so each of the before named nine children according to their ages till the youngest. What is for the maintenance of the mother always goes before while she lives, and so it goes in shares as before mentioned till the last. If it is not even make it equal as good as you can.

Further I have considered that I mentioned the clock among the movable property. Now I say that I promised the clock with the case to Henry for ten pounds, because Henry promised to maintain my wife Ann and to take care of her as is right and equitable.

He shall have her for that reason. 8. Eighthly, I bequeath my herb book to my youngest son Jonathan that he shall have it. He has also paid to me the amount of fifty shillings. Therefore this herb book is not to go into the division, and shall not be sold or lent to strangers and not given to young and careless people, and now I tell you my son Jonathan that you shall take care of my wife for I gave you the first chance. 9. Ninthly, I do nominate and appoint my two sons, Jacob and Henry Hogstatler of Elklick township executors over all of my estate and I give them power and authority to collect debts and also to pay them and to sign and assign in my name bills of sale, deeds, notes or bonds or whatever a man owns that requires signing, and that with such power and authority as if I signed it with my own hands. If in one or other article or anything you should happen on that would give dispute between my heirs, then my executors shall determine and no man shall overset their decision.

This is my last will and testament signed and sealed with my own hand and seal before witnesses. The executors and the heirs shall be without blame for my word or will.

The executors of this estate charged themselves with a total of all kinds of property, $2,971.89; paid debts and expenses, $155.89, leaving a balance of $2,816.00. This included all personal property, notes, bonds, etc. Among those who were in debt to the estate were John Hochstetler, in bonds, $1,733.33; Daniel Hochstetler, in bonds, $266.33; David Hochstetler, in notes, $106.67; Henry Hochstetler, in notes, $240.00; Daniel Hochstetler, owed on the books, $4.83; John Schrock, owed on the books, $2.60; Freny Schrock owed on the books, $1.67. Among the personal property were three large bibles and eighteen hymn and psalm books, valued at $16.00, evidently kept for sale.

The clock named in this will was given by his son Henry to his own daughter Mary Gerber who kept it till her old age when she was persuaded by a peddler to let him have it in exchange for a new clock worth perhaps three dollars. All efforts to secure its return failed.

The herb book mentioned in the will, which was to go to his son Jonathan was undoubtedly a book of Egyptian Mysteries which was considered in those days, a rare treasure. Such books were very jealously guarded by their owners as they were supposed to convey knowledge of magical arts. All efforts to find this book have failed.

Family Records

In starting your family record here you should give the number of your family in this book. This will make it easier to trace your record in the future.
